Teacher and Librarian Read-Aloud Guide

Best for: Ages 3–6, preschool to early primary.

Read-aloud time: 5–8 minutes.

Themes: first-day courage, new classroom, separation, routines, self-regulation, belonging.

Materials: the book, a backpack or soft toy, name tag, crayons, Three Brave Steps cards, certificate.

Before reading

Ask one gentle question. Do not force personal sharing.

- Have you ever started something new and felt unsure?
- What can make a big new place feel a little smaller?
- What is one thing that helps you feel safe on a first day?

During reading

Pause at these story moments.

- At the school door: What looks too big to Yok?
- When the teacher kneels beside Yok: How does the teacher help?
- At the three brave steps: Which step feels easiest: backpack, hello, or one activity?
- When Yok helps the new child: How did Yok use what she learned?

After reading

Choose one quick follow-up.

1. Say it: Practice one small hello: “Hello.”
2. Show it: Take one slow breath and stand tall.
3. Try it: Put one thing where it belongs.
4. Choose it: Pick one calm activity: crayons, blocks, books, or rug.
5. Celebrate it: Give each child a Brave First Day certificate.

Parent Conversation Card

After the Story: Talk About Brave First Days

Ask gently

1. What felt big to Yok?
2. What helped the room feel smaller?
3. Why did the teacher use only three steps?
4. What helped Yok say hello?
5. What is one brave first-day step you could try?

Practice together

Say the steps slowly. Pointing, whispering, or acting them out still counts.

Backpack. Hello. One activity.

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------|
| ▪ I can put one thing where it belongs. | ▪ I can take one slow breath. |
| ▪ I can say one small hello. | ▪ I can find my name. |
| ▪ I can choose one calm activity. | ▪ I can ask for help. |

Home activity: Before a first day, practice the routine once with a backpack, coat hook, cubby, or chair. Keep it small: put one thing away, say hello, then choose one quiet activity.

Three Brave Steps Cards

Cut out the cards. Use them before school, during storytime, or for pretend play.

The goal is not to remove nervous feelings. The goal is one small step anyway.

1. Backpack

Put one thing where it belongs.

2. Hello

Say one small hello.

3. One activity

Choose something gentle to do.

Find my name

A name tag can help me find my place.

Slow breath

Breathe in. Breathe
out. Try one step.

Ask for help

A grown-up can make a big place smaller.

Adult tip: Choose only one or two cards at a time. Too many choices can make a new place feel bigger.
